FREDERICK DYER (Fred)

In 1891 Frederick (pictured standing) became the first born and only son of six children to William and Sarah Dyer, of The Lower House, Kempley. Prior to enlisting in 1912, Fred had not followed his recently deceased father into farming but instead worked as a tram conductor based in Worcester. As Corporal (Gunner) in the Royal Garrison Artillery, his service took him as far away as India where, in Peshawar, near the War's end in 1919 he died of pneumonia. His cousin Dudley Dyer appears on the Dymock Memorial.

HE whom this scroll commemorates was numbered among those who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardness, faced danger, and finally passed out of the sight of men by the path of duty and self-sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom. Let those who come after see to it that his name be not forgotten.
